Feedback Analysis of Faculty

Feedback analysis of faculties in the year 2020-2021

ACTION TAKEN FOR FACULTY FEEDBACK (2020-2021)

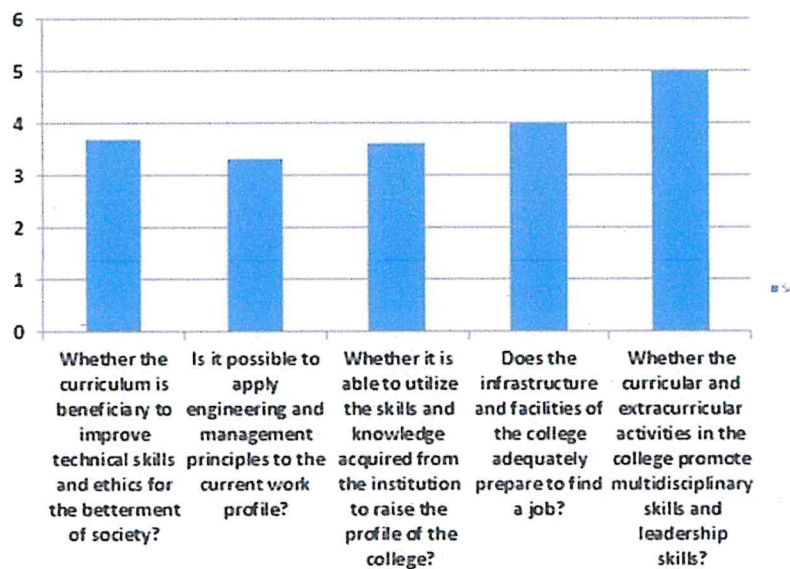

It is evident that, from the graph enclosed, teachers have given feedback that most of the questions are satisfactory. However major faculties say that the course/syllabus has less balance between theory and application. So to improve this in the classroom, share experiences with classmates and teachers, contributing to the learning experiences of all. Also, various workshops and seminars are provided to improve the practical application and knowledge. Webinars conducted during the year is an effective use of IT for professional activities. It will improve the knowledge and skills of students.
